6th Grade Chapter 4 Lesson 1

Mesopotamian Empires

The First Empire Builders

- 3,000-2,000 BC kings fought over land
- However, no one could control it all.

Babylonian Empire

- Hammurabi used governors to help him control the lands
- Sent people to collect taxes and appointed judges to keep order.

Hammurabi's Code of Law

- Needed a set of rules that all his people could abey.
- Justice for all (acts of wrongdoing and gave rights to people living in the land)
- Punishments were different for each social class. (eye for an eye)

Hammurabi's Legacy

- The code established the idea that the government should provide protection and justice for the people.
- Also, the Code set out the belief that society should be run by the rule of the law.

Logo

6th Grade Chapter 4 Lesson 1

Mesopotamian Empires

The First Empire Builders

- 3,000-2,000 BC kings fought over land
- However, no one could control it all.

Babylonian Empire

- Hammurabi used governors to help him control the lands
- Sent people to collect taxes and appointed judges to keep order.

Hammurabi's Code of Law

- Needed a set of rules that all his people could abey.
- Justice for all (acts of wrongdoing and gave rights to people living in the land)
- Punishments were different for each social class. (eye for an eye)

Hammurabi's Legacy

- The code established the idea that the government should provide protection and justice for the people.
- Also, the Code set out the belief that society should be run by the rule of the law.

Logo

The First Empire Builders

- 3,000-2,000 BC kings fought over land
- However, no one could control it all.

Sargon Builds an Empire

- 2350 BC Saragon took control
- Sargon of Akkad is known as the creator of the first empire in world history
- Ruled over the Fertile Crescent(Mediterranean Sea through Mesopotamia to the Persian Gulf)

Babylonian Empire

- Akkad lasted about 200 years
- about 2,000 BC people know as the Amorites took control of the Sumer city states
- From 1792-1750 Hammurabi ruled the Babylonian Empire

Sargon Builds an Empire

- 2350 BC Saragon took control
- Sargon of Akkad is known as the creator of the first empire in world history
- Ruled over the Fertile Crescent(Mediterranean Sea through Mesopotamia to the Persian Gulf)

Babylonian Empire

- Akkad lasted about 200 years
- about 2,000 BC people know as the Amorites took control of the Sumer city states
- From 1792-1750 Hammurabi ruled the Babylonian Empire

Babylonian Empire

- Hammurabi used governors to help him control the lands
- Sent people to collect taxes and appointed judges to keep order.

Hammurabi's Code of Law

- Needed a set of rules that all his people could obey.
- Justice for all (acts of wrongdoing and gave rights to people living in the land)
- Punishments were different for each social class. (eye for an eye)

Hammurabi's Legacy

- The code established the idea that the government should provide protection and justice for the people.
- Also, the Code set out the belief that society should be run by the rule of the law.

6th Grade Chapter 4 Lesson 1

Mesopotamian Empires

The First Empire Builders

- 3,000-2,000 BC kings fought over land
- However, no one could control it all.

Babylonian Empire

- Hammurabi used governors to help him control the lands
- Sent people to collect taxes and appointed judges to keep order.

Hammurabi's Code of Law

- Needed a set of rules that all his people could abey.
- Justice for all (acts of wrongdoing and gave rights to people living in the land)
- Punishments were different for each social class. (eye for an eye)

Hammurabi's Legacy

- The code established the idea that the government should provide protection and justice for the people.
- Also, the Code set out the belief that society should be run by the rule of the law.

Logo